

Waiver for Boston Urban Outreach Adult Participants

This is a legally binding release to City Mission Society of Boston (CMS) for Boston Urban Outreach adult participants.

I, _____ the undersigned state as follows:

(Print name)

I understand that with any volunteer service activity that there may be a risk of physical injury and exposure to hazards associated with manual labor. I understand and assume all such risks. Because the assertion of claims against CMS for personal injury occurring during my volunteer service would be antithetical to my support of CMS and its charitable purpose and in consideration of CMS's permitting me to engage in volunteer activities and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which I hereby acknowledge, I am granting this release on my behalf.

Likewise I understand that photos may be taken and/or video or digital recordings (collectively, "Images") while I engage in volunteer activities. All photos will be taken in a completely proper and professional manner. I hereby give my permission for the use of these images.

On behalf of myself, my estate and the personal representative thereof, my heirs and assigns, I hereby forever release and discharge CMS, its officers, directors, employees, volunteers and agents from any and all actions, causes of action, suits, demands, costs, claims, losses, liabilities and damages arising at any time out of, or in any way related to, my service as a volunteer for CMS. For myself, my estate and the personal representative thereof, my heirs and assigns, I covenant and agree to make no claim, nor to institute any suit, action or proceeding against CMS, its officers, directors, employees, volunteers or agents, arising at any time out of, or in any way related to, my service as a volunteer for CMS.

I have read this entire Release and I fully understand it and I agree to be legally bound by it.

Boston Urban Outreach Code of Responsibility for Adult Participants

Boston Urban Outreach youth events are planned to offer life-changing experiences for young people. Keeping BUO youth safe is our first priority and adult leaders are important partners in ensuring their safety. Your cooperation in adhering to the following code of ethics is essential to the success of this event and will facilitate the supervision of youth.

Boston Urban Outreach (BUO) adult leaders are expected to abide by the BUO Code of Ethics during their participation in BUO programs.

- All participants must treat people of all races, religions, cultures, genders and sexual orientation with respect and consideration.
- All participants must be free of physical and psychological conditions that might adversely affect any minor's health, including, but not limited to, contagious disease.
- Adult leaders will be positive role models for youth by maintaining an attitude of respect, patience, courtesy, maturity and full participation.
- Adult leaders will do everything possible to avoid being alone with a youth other than their own child.

The following behaviors are prohibited:

- Smoking or using tobacco products in the presence of youth.
- Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol, narcotics or illegal drugs.
- Sexual advances toward or sexual activities of any kind with anyone.
- Physical abuse or bodily injury to anyone.
- Physical neglect of a youth, including failure to provide adequate supervision during BUO activities.
- Mental or emotional abuse or injury to anyone.
- The presence or possession of obscene or pornographic materials at any BUO function.
- The use or toleration of profanity in the presence of youth.

I understand that any violation of this code will be grounds for removal as a BUO adult participant.

Waiver for Boston Urban Outreach Youth Participants

This is a legally binding release to City Mission Society of Boston (CMS) for Boston Urban Outreach youth participants.

I, _____ the undersigned parent/guardian
(Print name)

for _____, state as follows:
(Print name of child)

I understand that with any volunteer service activity that there may be a risk of physical injury and exposure to hazards associated with manual labor. I agree to discuss these possibilities with my child and advise them to follow instructions carefully. I understand and assume all such risks because the assertion of claims against CMS for personal injury occurring during my child's volunteer service would be antithetical to my support of CMS and its charitable purpose. In consideration of CMS's permitting my child to engage in volunteer activities and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which I hereby acknowledge, I am granting this release on behalf of my child.

On behalf of myself, my estate and the personal representative thereof, my heirs and assigns, I hereby forever release and discharge CMS, its officers, directors, employees, volunteers and agents from any and all actions, causes of action, suits, demands, costs, claims, losses, liabilities and damages arising at any time out of, or in any way related to, my child's service as a volunteer for CMS. For myself, my estate and the personal representative thereof, my heirs and assigns, I covenant and agree to make no claim, nor to institute any suit, action or proceeding against CMS, its officers, directors, employees, volunteers or agents, arising at any time out of, or in any way related to, my child's service as a volunteer for CMS.

Likewise I understand that photos may be taken and/or video or digital recordings (collectively, "Images") of my child while they engage in volunteer activities. All photos will be taken in a completely proper and professional manner. I hereby give my permission for the use of these images as long as my child is NOT individually identified.

I have read this entire Release and I fully understand it and I agree to be legally bound by it.

PCOS HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MISSION TRIP GRADES 9-12—COMPLETED SPRING 2012

BOSTON, MA/ JUNE 3-JUNE 10, 2012

We are going to Boston, MA and we will be working in a variety of settings within the inner city of Boston. Each day will be filled with a variety of experiences; serving the homeless to working with the elderly to working with children. This will be an all encompassing trip. There may even be some hard labor such as painting. But there will be a variety of opportunities.

We hope you will join us on this mission trip. We have tried to create a mixture of opportunities over the years for students to see a variety of places all over the country and how faith is lived out. Last year was in the middle of nowhere and this year in the middle of everything with Boston.

We'll be staying at either Wollaston Congregational Church in Quincy or First Church in Charlestown.

So, you're asking, "Why would I want to go on this mission trip?"

- ▶ If you're looking for a spiritually and physically challenging, sometimes "out of your comfort zone" experience—this IS the mission trip for you!
- ▶ If you're willing to get up early and/or stay up late talking with and serving people everyday—this IS the mission trip for you!
- ▶ Are you willing to invite God into your everyday experience and that may involve you adjusting to whatever work group you are placed in. Being able to see your work group through the eyes of Jesus and not only those who are your besties.

Required Parent/Student meeting
Sunday, January 29 10:30am in the Cave.

Adults: If you're interested in going on this trip you must email Harlan prior to filling out any forms.

Trip expectations are similar to those of previous mission trips. Perhaps the biggest expectation is that you are involved with the life of the Church. Do you attend worship in the Sanctuary? Are you involved with a youth program (Sunday school, Wednesday nights youth group, or the monthly homeless outreach)? Mission trips create community and it is our hope that we can build on this thought. You build community and get connected by participating in various church related activities. Friends are always welcome and friends will be expected to abide by the same mission trip rules of our youth. Anyone who does not abide by the trip rules will be sent home.

You MUST include your NON-REFUNDABLE DEPOSIT of $100 along with your Registration form for your reservation to be complete. Seats will NOT be reserved without the non-refundable deposit.

If you have any questions, please contact Harlan
If you have more than one student participating , scholarships are available.
harhar@stanleypres.org or call 913-851-7725 ext 18.
